JOCKEY WALSH'S RUSE WON FOR TICKFUL

Little Rider Told Owners of Ciales That He Needed Dull Spurs to Run His Best Race,

REALLY WANTED KEEN ONES.

So Tickful Came In Ahead and His Owner Made a Lot of Money-Jim Clarke Won Sprint Handicap With Huge Weight.

According to report, Jockey Toddy Walsh's cleverness in answering a pointed question won his employer, W. H. Fizer, a small fortune yesterday in the fifth race It came about this way.

Mr. Fizer had Tickful in the race. Walsh was to ride this horse. Mr. Gumberts had recently purchased Clales the night before. He bought him at forced sale out of a selling race. The former owners of the horse refused to post him on the brute's idio-syncrasies and in which was best manner to ride him. Hence, the Gumberts party was obliged to ask Waish how it was best to ride Claies. Walsh had often ridden the horse to victory.
"Use a pair of duli spurs and rate him,"

"Use a pair of dull spurs and rate him," said Welsh.

Tommy Dean had the mount on Ciales. He used the dull spurs. Johnnie Powers, who trains the Gumberts stable, told Dean to lie within a length of Tickful and Van Hoorebeke who he properly figured would make the pace, and at the three-eighths begin his ride and come on. The race was run as Powers figured. Tickful and Van Hoorebeke ran in front. At the three-eighths Dean began his ride on Cales. The horse did not seem to reply to the will or to the dull spurs. Tickful left Van Hoorebeko at the stretch head and came home alone. Claims beat Van Hoorebeke for the place.

Judge Erady did not like Claims's race and started an investigation. Hattientrees the singe Brady old not like Claiers race and started an investigation. He disinterred the fact that Claies wanted keen spurs and a good prodding instead of dull spurs and whip-riding.

Mr. Gumberts felt when he saw the race that Waish had double-crossed blings he that Waish had double-crossed him, so he bid Tickful up $300. It cost Mr. Fizer the horse, but the way he sent the coin into the ring more than got him even ten times over.

horse, but the way he sent the coin into the ring more than got him even ten times over.

Jim Clarke did take the Misseuri Trust building on his back yesterday and did bear Croix d'Or at seven furlongs, principally because Bonner, on Oroix d'Or, paid more attention to beating L. Daly on Prosper La Gai than he did to beating Jim Clarke.

Prosper La Gai and Croix d'Or et the pace. Prosper was on the outside at every turn. Croix d'Or and Bonner seemed to be trying to carry him out. At the stretch turn little Bonner swung Prosper wide and opened a nice hole for Jim Clarke on the rail. He came through and breezed home. In the mix-up Larry Daly, on Prosper, beat the life out of little Bonner with his whip and was fined 150 for it by the judges. Prosper La Gai was second. Croix d'Or ran six furlongs better than 1:14 the other day. The six furlongs here were run in 1:15%. Croix d'Or should have been six lengths in front in such time as that. Sambo, who ran seven furiongs in 1:25%, with III up the other day, and with all kinds of interference, ran last in 1:28 with 167 up yesterday. Clarke's race was easy.

Fifth Race-Zazol, Beana, Josie F.

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION.

Bettors should have a field day at Delmar this afternoon. Five of the seven races look like easy ones in which to pick the winners. The first race looks like a good thing for Harry Griffith on his last race. He has weight off. He goes farther each race and hangs closer to the rall. With a good boy up he will win to-day. Model Monarch rans good and bad races, but he is the contender here. Deerhunter has been sick and is scarce up to a race, but if he is ready he will go well.

Leenja looks like a moral in the second race. Mr. Nolan has been unlucky in his trips to the barrier. Mr. Dade has been unfortunate in letting his horses off badly. But Leenja can be left at the post and win. Ladas, Mr. Pomeroy and The Messenger will be the hard ones that will fight for the money.

W. B. Gates will win the third race if he runs to his form. His last race was good enough to win this. Orris and Founding will set the pace and Gates will lie behind them in a good position, then come on. Orris will be second and Navarino third.

At first glance Zazel looks like a cinch, but Josie F. has a chance. Zazel must have a good boy up and must be well ridden. Dale could land her a winner here easily. Practically same way weighted, Josie F. took a bad ride and beat her in a long drive. Enos rode Zazel badly in this race, but no worse than Bonner rode Josie F. Cherished will go well, but will have her work cut out to be third. Beans ran a brilliant race last out, and will take some beating. Zazel will win if the ride on her is strong and tight, but she must be well handled to do her best.

The Phoenician runs in spots, but he is big and the weight here should be a feather on him if he is properly prepared for the race. West Baden is a good horse and he will be the one they have got to beat. Maggie Clopton and Verify will travel well and Joe Goss will not mind the weight.

Bengal looks best in the last race. Hucena will not be easy to beat, but Bengal is such a true game horse that one must go to him. The time of Hucena's last race was bad and Bengal can beat it at the weight.

Palimetre, a good looker, was heavily played, broke badly, went around the field, opened a big gap, but was tiring at the end. She will beat better horses, as the race will help her. Faith Ward was very badly ridden, but finished strongly.

Flash ran away a quarter before the race, broke smartly in front of a tangled field, in which the contenders were off badly, and lasted longer under Dean's handling than under Crubb, who rede him previously, and just did last long enough. The assistant starter held Pourquot Pas until the field broke, then turned her loose. She made un ground fast and was best. # PROMPTLY PUNISHED tine Had Been Placed on the Sulky - Dan Patch Will Appear To-Day.

Columbus, O., Aug. 1.-The judges at the Grand Circuit races to-day unearthed a job in the $5,000 stake for 2:20 pacers, and by prompt action saved speculators who had backed the field a large sum of money, Severe punishment was meted out, Driver Tom Stuard and the horse Elderone being suspended for one year.

The 2:20 pace was the feature of a good card. There were six starters, but Greenline and Elderone were conceded to have the race between them. Greenline won the first heat with ease in 2:68%, slow time over the track, which was lightning fast.

The second heat was a race in itself, and was won by Elderone, who paced a beautiful rule in 2:65%, cutting his record by four seconds.

on at that.

Inish she would have meed at the end after she manground.

Flash of Night was lucky to win the second race. She ran away a quarter of a mile twice in the breaks before the start.

After the second runaway some of the books laid 59 to 1 against her and some bets were made at that price. Phil Hamili, 102 who books for Barney Schreiber, bet a tidy sum on her at 25 and 59 to 1, and cashed handsomely to the race. Virginia Carroll took lots of money at 50, 40 and 39 and lost if. Flash of Night was lucky in that Pourquoi Pas was off badly. Had Hughes's filly gotten off she would have won.

By the way, the change of jockeys from Crabb to Dean and the taking off the blinkers made quite a difference in the running of Flash of Night.

Wily Dick Padden disdainfully turned his back on a particular friend of Wilson's—I. N. Shoot—and was pinked in the fourth rib. That made a full house and when Mique Kabos singled to center, Wallace and McCormick scored.

In a hasty error to make Coroners meat of Padden at third, Davy Fultz turned loose a high throw over Lave Cross, and legrounded sharply at Davis, who fumbied, and the bases were again loaded.
